

Tilling the fields

Prince Edward Island is one of the oldest agricultural areas in Canada.

Labourage des champs

L'Île-du-Prince-Édouard figure parmi les régions agricoles les plus anciennes au Canada.

It is hard to find a more fertile area in the world than the Prince Edward Islands. The soil is rich and the climate is mild. The land is fertile and the climate is mild. The land is fertile and the climate is mild.

Les îles du Prince-Édouard sont une terre fertile. Le sol est riche et le climat est doux. La terre est fertile et le climat est doux. La terre est fertile et le climat est doux.

In 1604, the first European settlers arrived on the island. They brought with them the tools and techniques of agriculture. The land was fertile and the climate was mild. The land was fertile and the climate was mild.

Under British rule, the island became a major agricultural center. The British brought with them the tools and techniques of agriculture. The land was fertile and the climate was mild. The land was fertile and the climate was mild.

Over the years, the island's agriculture has evolved. The islanders have developed a unique agricultural system. The land is fertile and the climate is mild. The land is fertile and the climate is mild.

By 1875, the government had established a system of land grants. The government had established a system of land grants. The government had established a system of land grants.

The government had established a system of land grants. The government had established a system of land grants. The government had established a system of land grants.

The government had established a system of land grants. The government had established a system of land grants. The government had established a system of land grants.

Through the 20th century, the island's agriculture has continued to evolve. The islanders have developed a unique agricultural system. The land is fertile and the climate is mild. The land is fertile and the climate is mild.

The government had established a system of land grants. The government had established a system of land grants. The government had established a system of land grants.

The government had established a system of land grants. The government had established a system of land grants. The government had established a system of land grants.